2005-06 was the 21st year of grantmaking for the Charles H. Dater Foundation. More than $23 million in grants have been made since the first grant was awarded in 1985.

The Foundation made 79 grants totaling $1,456,000 in 2005-06. Grants ranged from $1,000 to $105,000 and the median grant was $11,000. Nearly 1,500 grants have been awarded to over 300 different organizations over the last twenty-one years.

The Foundation is committed to Enriching the Lives of Children. Its mission: to make grants to non-profit organizations in the Greater Cincinnati area to carry out projects and programs that benefit children and focus in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs.

Businessman and philanthropist Charles H. Dater (1912-1993), a fourth generation Cincinnati, established the Foundation in 1985 to ensure that funding for worthwhile community programs would continue after his death.

The Foundation honors the memory and preserves the philanthropic commitment of Charles and his ancestors, whose hard work and business acumen over 150 years provided them with the opportunity to share their success with their community.

Foundation officers and directors play an active role in the work of the Foundation, which has no full-time staff members. They perform the work of staff, reviewing hundreds of grant requests each year and making grants. They make site visits to current and potential grant recipients, monitor how grant dollars are being spent, and seek new beneficiaries whose program goals coincide with those of the Foundation.

More information about the Foundation is available at www.DaterFoundation.org, including an explanation of the grant application process and an application form, a list of frequently asked questions, and grantee success stories.

American Diabetes Association - $5,000

Camp Korelitz is a program of the American Diabetes Association of Southwest Ohio and Northern Kentucky, providing a residential camp for children with diabetes ages 8 to 15. Camp is one week and offers a traditional camping experience coupled with the round the clock medical care necessary for children with diabetes. Diet and diabetes education are the core curriculum of the camp, where campers learn in formal presentations but also through teachable moments. The camp recognizes that each child is an individual and staff uses a variety of methods to help youngsters feel more confident and gain self-confidence and self sufficiency. Over 150 children benefitted from the program. The Dater Foundation's grant enabled children to participate who could not otherwise afford the fees to attend. Feedback is that the best thing about attending Camp Korelitz is that children do not feel alone with their disease.

ArtWorks - $15,000

ArtWorks connects artists of all ages with opportunities in the arts through inspiring apprenticeships, community partnerships and public art. ArtWorks' apprentices interpreted select works from the Art Museum's permanent collection through creative writing, illustration, and graphic design, compiling their work to create a book that is itself a work of art and an interactive guide to the collection. The Teen Guide has the potential to reach 35,000 children and families who visit the Cincinnati Art Museum throughout the year.

Cincinnati Children's Hospital - $50,000

The Dater Cancer Gene Therapy Program at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center works to find effective therapies for children with some of the most challenging cases of cancer in the world. A Dater grant of $250,000 over five years has supported staff in the Divisions of Hematology/Oncology and Experimental Hematology in breaking new ground. The Division of Hematology/Oncology treats nearly 2,500 children every year. Looking at cancer patterns and treatments at the sub-cellular level, the divisions work closely together to find answers for treating very high-risk brain tumors in children, and Fanconi anemia, a fatal genetic condition in which children develop aplastic anemia, leukemia or cancer. The Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation - $50,000, $15,000

The Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation (CSF) was established in 1918 to financially assist students in the Cincinnati Public Schools system in completing their high school education. College financial assistance was added to the program in the 1920s, and both programs are still in effect today. A $50,000 Dater Foundation grant provided scholarships to 20 area students with proven financial need. All were graduates of Cincinnati Public Schools and 15 were Dater High School graduates. Three of the students earned their degrees in the spring. A $15,000 Dater Foundation grant allowed the CSF to serve 26 students from Dater High School last year with financial incentives, workshops, a tutorial program, and a book club. The grant awards continue the Foundation's support of a school which bears the

Cincinnati Zoo - $100,000

A long-time supporter of the Cincinnati Zoo, the Dater Foundation made a commitment of $500,000 to the planned Cheetah Encounter, part of the Zoo's $40 million capital campaign. The Zoo's Cathryn Hilker noted that the exhibit will be a true one-of-a-kind in the world. Space will allow Zoo visitors to watch cheetahs in flight at 60 miles per hour. The exhibit will allow the Zoo to address conservation issues that revolve around this delicate and endangered animal. Ms. Hilker has devoted significant time in the last 15 years trying to save the cheetah in the wild, in Namibia and in captivity. Other major Zoo funding provided by the Foundation has been for the Children's Zoo, the Wings of Wonder exhibit, and the Tropical Rivers Aquarium.

Ronald McDonald House Charities - $10,000

Cincinnati's Ronald McDonald House provides a "home away from home" for families with seriously ill children receiving treatment at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, regardless of their ability to pay. The Dater Foundation helped initiate a Family Performance Series in 2002 with a start-up grant. The Foundation continued support in 2005. The program, which enables the House to provide small stipends for the performers as well as cover other performance costs, has blossomed. In 2005 families enjoyed over 60 performances by area artists and entertainers. One family sent this note: "The theatre was an escape from medical challenges and a safe place of fun and creativity. I will always remember the Ronald McDonald House children's theatre as the place where I first heard my daughter's laughter."

The Salvation Army - $10,000

The Salvation Army has been part of the Cincinnati community since 1885, providing food, rent, financial assistance, drug and alcohol rehabilitation, emergency disaster services, holiday assistance, emergency shelters, daycare programs for children and frail elderly, and after-school and summer enrichment youth programs. Camp Swoneky, a signature program located in Warren County, offers a wonderful outdoor adventure where youth can grow in body, mind and spirit. For many children, it is the only time they leave their immediate neighborhoods and experience the larger world. A Dater grant funded a week of resident camp for 35 disadvantaged youth from Northern Kentucky, helping the Army keep its promise that no child will be turned away for inability to pay.

One activity within this project was a series of four summer dances held on the Oyler School Playground in Lower Price Hill. Young people danced to the Electric Slide, Rocky Top and the Hokie Pokie while parents observed or, in many cases, joined in.

UC Med Mentors - $8,000

Med Mentors is a mentoring program by students of the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine for students in Cincinnati Public Schools. Some 160 UC medical students have established one-on-one mentoring relationships with students in the CPS system for the years that they are undergoing their training. They regularly tutor the mentees and encourage them to excel academically. A Dater Foundation grant allowed the mentors to initiate activities that enrich the lives of the young people with whom they are working. These include attending theatrical performances and movies; trips to museums, the zoo and the aquarium; lessons in origami, pottery, beading and crafts; bowling and other sports. Mentees were exposed to a myriad of experiences and foods that they would otherwise never have had the opportunity to enjoy.

The Wellness Community - $11,000

The Wellness Community of Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky is part of a national, non-profit organization dedicated to providing free, professionally-facilitated programs of support, education, and hope to people with cancer and their loved ones. In Greater Cincinnati, The Wellness Community offers a wide array of support and education services at its primary facility in Blue Ash, a Northern Kentucky facility in Ft. Wright, and offsite outreach locations in Avondale, Clifton, Roselawn and Western Hills. Dater Foundation grants over two years are providing significant funding for Walking the Dinosaur, a support program for children who have cancer in their families. Just like adults, children react to a cancer diagnosis; but unlike adults, their life experiences are more limited, which can manifest unhealthy outcomes. Walking the Dinosaur has been created to help children cope in a healthy manner with these changes.

World Piano Competition - $30,000

The Dater Bach-Beethoven-Brahms Educational Outreach Program of the World Piano Competition provides children with a multi-sensory experience through the combination of music and drawing. As they hear the music and see the artist, children are actively involved in the performance through the opportunity of immediate feedback by transferring their aural and visual experience into artwork. The BBB is the tri-state's largest interactive live-audience. Over 9,000 children attended the 25 events held throughout the year at the Aronoff Center and other locations. The Dater Foundation's grant for the 2006-07 program year marks its ninth consecutive year of support.

Grant Request/ Application Process

The Dater Foundation wants to make the Grant Request/Application process as easy as possible for organizations seeking financial support.

The Foundation's web site features a wealth of information. Go to www.DaterFoundation.org.

The "Grants" section includes:

- Grant Guidelines
- Grant Request/Application Form (downloadable in Word and PDF files)
- Grant Evaluation Report criteria

These items are also available by calling the Foundation's office at 513/241-2658.

Grantmaking Focus, Process and Timing

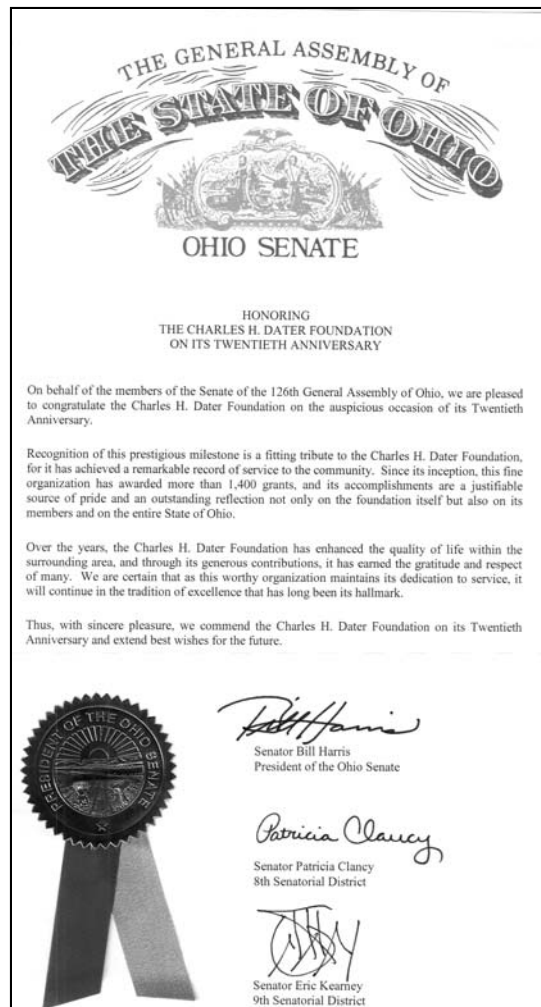

The Foundation makes grants to private, non-profit organizations and public agencies in Greater Cincinnati for programs that benefit children in the region in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs. Greater Cincinnati is defined as the eight-county metropolitan area made up of the counties of Hamilton, Butler, Warren and Clermont in Ohio; Boone, Kenton and Campbell in Northern Kentucky; and Dearborn in Indiana. The Foundation does not make grants to individuals, for scholarships for individuals, for debt reduction, and, with rare exception, for capital fund projects. Grants are usually made for one year and subsequent grants for an extended or ongoing program are based on an evaluation of annual results. Multiple grants to an organization in the Foundation's same fiscal year (September through August) are possible, but rare. The Foundation looks favorably on applications that leverage a grant to seek additional funding and resources. The Foundation's directors/officers regularly evaluate the organization's grantmaking focus and priorities based on an assessment of current community needs and available resources.

Grant applicants are strongly urged to review the Grant Guidelines and Grant Evaluation Form before starting to complete the Grant Request/Application Form. This will help them better understand the Foundation's background and grantmaking priorities thereby improving the likelihood of approval for some and saving valuable time for others whose application may not be consistent with the Foundation's grantmaking focus.

The Grant Request/Application process requires a minimum of 60 days from the time an application is received until a grant request is approved or declined. The Grant Request/Application form asks the date by which a funding decision is requested or needed. Directors/officers meet monthly to evaluate grant applications. Once an application is approved, funds are dispersed to the grant recipient organization in about two weeks.

Ohio Senate Honors Dater Foundation

The Ohio Senate of the 126th General Assembly recently congratulated the Foundation on its twentieth anniversary and its “remarkable record of service to the community ... We are certain as this worthy organization maintains its dedication to service, it will continue the tradition of excellence that has long been its hallmark.” The document was signed by Senate President Bill Harris and local area Senators Patricia Clancy and Eric Kearney.

Charles H. Dater, 1912-1993

Philanthropist, Businessman, Cincinnatian

Charles Hixson Dater was born in Cincinnati in 1912. A brother, the only other child of Charles Henry Dater and his wife Ona, died as an infant 12 years before Charles was born.

Charles grew up in Northside and attended North Presbyterian Church. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati and pursued a master's in business administration at Harvard University. He served as an officer in the U.S. Army during World War II.

His father died when Charles was only 17 years old, and he was thrust into management of the family's holdings at an early age. After his mother died, his full-time focus became the family's investments and residential land development in Western Hills, where he lived in a modest three-bedroom ranch home. He died in 1993.

Many Greater Cincinnati institutions and charities benefited from his generosity through the years, both before and after the establishment of the Foundation; but Charles preferred that his gifts be anonymous and unrecognized.

He made the decision in the mid-1980s to establish a foundation to preserve the family's memory and to ensure that funding through grants for worthwhile community programs would continue.

The Dater family and its ties to Cincinnati dates back four generations. Charles's great grandfather, Adam Dater, emigrated from Germany and settled in Cincinnati in 1830. Hard work and business acumen were hallmarks of succeeding generations of Dater family members, who generously shared their success with their community. A Cincinnati high school and Montessori school are named in honor of Gilbert Dater, grandfather of Charles.
